

Chuck Fuqua

Chuck Fuqua joined the AF&PA staff in July 2010 as Executive Director, Strategic Communications. Chuck is responsible for the communications efforts that support our public policy advocacy agenda, reinforcing the AF&PA brand, and continuing the effectiveness of AF&PA as the voice of the forest products industry. Prior to coming to AF&PA, Chuck served as Vice President of Communications at the American Frozen Food Institute for two years. Before entering the association world, Chuck served nearly six years in the Department of Commerce's Office of Public Affairs, primarily as the Deputy Director of Public Affairs. Chuck has served on staff of five Republican National Conventions, responsible for media operations for the 15,000 members of the media that cover the event. Chuck is a graduate of West Georgia College with a degree in Mass Communications. Chuck resides in Alexandria, Virginia with his wife Eileen Gilligan and two children.
